FLOOR DEBATE

April 2, 2002

LB 600

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Coordsen, what is the fiscal note amount that goes along with this bill?

SENATOR COORDSEN: The fiscal note with the original bill was something like $400,000. We didn't take up the A bill though, and I can't comment, although I was told that it would be something less than that. But that's...that's what the original A bill was.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So this bill actually does not need an A bill?

SENATOR COORDSEN: Certainly it doesn't need an A bill with the amendment that I have filed following your amendment, Senator, because that amendment pushes the effective date out to aught-four and aught-five.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, that leads me to ask another question, because I'm not familiar with the contents of your amendment. This bill is going to do some shifting of responsibility for certain amounts of money to be paid by taxpayers. And I kept it as neutral as I could by not mentioning which areas that might occur in, but is that true? It will result in some shifting.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Every time we make changes in revenue statutes, it does result in some shift, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Coordsen. Members of the Legislature, I don't know what Senator Coordsen's amendment will do as far as changing your minds, but I am serious about this motion. However, since it is his bill and he wants the opportunity to argue his case, I'm going to withdraw that motion and refile it after Senator Coordsen's amendment is considered. So do I need to come up to the desk to do that or...thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: So ordered, Senator Chambers.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Coordsen would move to amend, AM3448. (Legislative Journal page 1281.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Coordsen to open on your motion.
